

Oregon War Veterans Association is having a ball!

Who: You! (and up to 800 other veterans, ORNG members and their families and Oregon's VIP's)

What: Oregon War Veterans Mayoral Ball (hosted by Salem's Mayor Janet Taylor) and awards celebration.

Four DeShazer Awards and four Oregon Veteran Service Awards will be presented. The nominees were given (in part) by the Oregon State Commanders of the American Legion and the VFW.

When: Friday, November 16th, 2007.

OWVA Award Presentations (with light buffet and desserts) begin at 7:00 PM
Mayoral Veteran's Ball (dance) begins at 8:00 PM until 11:30 PM

Why: The event's purpose is to honor Oregon's military members and veterans, and to help raise funds for the Oregon National Guard Family Assistance Program, and OWVA's charitable and employment projects.

Where: Salem's Convention Center, in the Willamette Ballroom.

Dress: Civilian/veterans Black Tie, or Semi-formal. Service members: Service Dress, or Class A.

Cost: Free for service members in uniform, or veterans with a veteran hat, insignia, pin, or other veteran ID. All others: $15.00 per person, in advance, or at the door for $25.00. Food and drinks are provided. A no-host bar will serve beer, wine and mixed drinks.

For more information on attendance, awards, sponsorships or VIP invitations, please contact:

Greg Warnock
Oregon War Veterans Association
greg@owva.org
503.689.4145

More to follow soon!

OWVA's Platinum Sponsor of this Mayor Ball is TriWest Health Care Alliance. TriWest is committed to providing access to the best quality health care and customer service for America's military families. <https://www.triwest.com/triwest/default.html>